

These are the most well-known Orton-Gillingham based systems.

Barton Reading & Spelling System

Designed for one-on-one tutoring of children, teenagers and adults by parents, volunteer tutors, reading or resource specialists or their aides, and professional tutors.

The Barton System is the easiest one to learn because all of the tutor training comes on DVD, along with fully scripted lesson plans and free unlimited support.

Published by Bright Solutions for Dyslexia in California. www.BartonReading.com 408-559-3652

Orton-Gillingham

The pure, unchanged, original method. Taught by Eileen Faggiano, Orton Gillingham Associates, in Massachusetts. 781-934-5548

Project Read /A-Z Reading Interventions

by Enfield and Greene Published by The Language Circle in Minnesota.

www.projectread.com 612-884-4880 ~ A-Z Reading Interventions/Phonics, Kathy Johnson
Omaha, NE 402-669-3197

Slingerland

Designed for classroom settings of young children in the first, second, and third grades. The Slingerland Institute is in Washington. www.slingerland.org 425-453-1190

MTA (Multi-sensory Teaching Approach)

Edmar Educational Services in Texas. www.mtsedmar.com 972-552-1090

Alphabetic Phonics (new version is called Take Flight)

Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children in Texas. 214-559-7800

Wilson Reading System

Wilson Language Training Corporation in Massachusetts. www.wilsonlanguage.com 800-899-8454

Language!

Sopris West, which was acquired by Cambium Learning Group. www.soprislearning.com 800-547-6747

Recipe for Reading

Published by Educators Publishing Service (EPS) www.eps.schoolspecialty.com 516-242-8943

Preventing Academic Failure (PAF)

Published by Educators Publishing Service (EPS) www.pafprogram.com 845-279-8810